94/1920 ONGOING ISSUES

94.1 Ousefleet Community Hall. The hall committee are very busy with meetings and discussions to alter the hall and make it suitable for dementia sufferers. The bingos continue every two weeks to raise funds. A request was made for £1 per elector from the three villages towards a coin to be presented to all children under 16 years of age. Resolved to accept that a S137 payment will be made by this council and the clerk is to request support from Reedness and Swinefleet parish councils. The parish council will apply for a grant to ERYC Community fund at its next meeting. The committee enquire if the outside of the hall can be made level and the tarmac be replaced. The clerk will ask ERYC for permission. On the 7th March three parish councillors and Ward councillor will take part in a Dementia friendly walk over the Humber Bridge.

94.2 Parish Council Penfold. The clerk has been unable to find a contractor willing to carry out work on the site due to the difficulties of access. Resolved that the parish councillors will erect a gate to allow lawn mowers through to cut the grass and concrete this in. No further work will be undertaken. Volunteers will continue to cut the grass on this site.

94.3 Planter Project New purchase of seat/planter for the hall. Grant form to be submitted.
